Studio RK Salon Makes Headlines with Fox-4 News Team

photography | Eric Luther

Fox-4 News viewers may have noticed that the team in your corner looks especially stylish these days.

For those wondering how Amy Wegmann and Amy Sedlacek manage to look great in the wee hours of the morning or how Patrick Nolan consistently gets his 'do so perfectly coiffed, the answers can be found amongst the snipping of scissors and buzzing of ionic hair dryers on Daniels Parkway at Studio RK Salon.

After an exhaustive interview process earlier this year, Fox-4 selected Studio RK Salon to provide styling services for approximately 20 on-air professionals.

Many network news affiliates contract with a single salon to provide a consistent signature look for their team, and in Fox-4's case it was Studio RK Salon's expertly trained stylists that put the salon head and shoulders above other potential choices. The results have shown in positive viewer feedback. Also, thanks to the salon's special touch, anchors Nolan and Krista Fogelsong were recently awarded the title Best Hair on a News Program by Gulfshore Life in the May issue of the magazine.

"Working with the news team is awesome," says Karen Steuber, a partner at Studio RK Salon. "They are so nice and down to earth. That's why they fit right in here."

Steuber and Walker are regarded as leaders in their field. Studio RK invests heavily in finding and cultivating the most talented professionals in the area. All stylists are certified color specialists and receive in-depth training both in the salon and on the road.

The 26-member Studio RK team now serves 1,500-1,700 guests per month at the trendy boutique-style shop located between the Mallie Montgomery and JJ Denim fashion houses of Fort Myers. In addition to color and cuts, Studio RK Salon offers hair extensions, on-location and in-studio bridal consultation and services. The salon sells accessories, professional hair care products and its own line of skin care and cosmetics called i.dentity.

Studio RK Salon has twice been nominated for the prestigious Global Salon Business Award, and has achieved the status of being a full Redken Ambassador Salon.

Yet the partners feel their greatest achievement lies in their everyday work. "We hold a lot of power to change the way a person feels about themselves," says Steuber. "It's very rewarding to give that to someone." ☺
